A Message from GMRW
President
TeriAnn Neigel

Joshua 1:9 "Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid, do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go.”

1 Chronicles 28:20” Be strong and courageous, and do the work. Do not be afraid or discouraged, for the Lord God, my God, is with you.”

The above referenced scriptures tell us that in all things, we must have Faith above Fear. The recent elections left many feeling bereft and rudderless. While many may feel that their efforts are for naught, it is clear that in all things the Lord’s will be done. Everything that happens, is a blessing and a lesson. Therefore, in the words of a very wise friend, we must “occupy”. The Lord commands us to occupy until he comes.

The word occupy does not mean to merely exist, but to invest ourselves with intent of increase, not simply to keep safe. We reflect, analyze, and regroup with new enthusiasm and reenergized commitment. The Lord says “DO THE WORK.” In many examples in the Bible, the Lord shows us how faith heals. It heals not only our bodies and spirits, but our nations. The Lord is confident of faith’s outcome, why aren’t we?

I would like to extend a heartfelt “Thank You” to all of our members for being present and supporting us throughout the last year. I would also like to thank and welcome our renewing members and our new members for 2023. Our members are what make this club great.

This holiday season, my wish for each of you, and for all in our country is to heal and grow strong for what lies ahead. May your holidays be filled with love, peace, and joy!

“Happy Hanukkah” and a very “Merry Christmas”

“If I Were The Devil”

Transcript from the Paul Harvey syndicated radio program: April 3rd, 1965
“If I were the devil....If I were the prince of darkness, I’d want to engulf the whole world in darkness. And I’d have a third of its real estate, and four-fifths of its population, but I wouldn’t be happy until I had seized the ripest apple on the tree—thee. So I'd set about however necessary to take over the United States. I'd subvert the churches first – I'd begin with a campaign of whispers. With the wisdom of a serpent, I would whisper to you as I whispered to Eve: 'Do as you please.'

"To the young, I would whisper that 'The Bible is a myth.' I would convince them that man created God instead of the other way around. I would confide that what's bad is good, and what's good is 'square.' And the old, I would teach to pray, after me, 'Our Father, which art in Washington....'

"And then I'd get organized. I'd educate authors in how to make lurid literature exciting, so that anything else would appear dull and uninteresting. I'd threaten TV with dirtier movies and vice versa. I'd pedal narcotics to whom I could. I'd sell alcohol to ladies and gentlemen of distinction. I'd tranquilize the rest with pills. "

"If I were the devil I'd soon have families that war with themselves, churches at war with themselves, and nations at war with themselves; until each in its turn was consumed. And with promises of higher ratings I'd have mesmerizing media fanning the flames. If I were the devil I would encourage schools to refine young intellects, but neglect to discipline emotions – just let those run wild, until before you knew it, you'd have to have drug sniffing dogs and metal detectors at every schoolhouse door."

"Within a decade I'd have prisons overflowing, I'd have judges promoting pornography – soon I could evict God from the court house, then from the schoolhouse, and then from the houses of Congress. And in His own Churches I would substitute psychology for religion, and deify science. If I were the devil I'd make the symbols of Easter an egg and the symbol of Christmas a bottle."

"If I were the devil I'd take from those who have and give to those who wanted until I had killed the incentive of the ambitious. And what do you bet? I could get whole states to promote gambling as the way to get rich? I would caution against extremes and hard work, in patriotism, in moral conduct. I would convince the young that marriage is old-fashioned, that swinging is more fun, that what you see on TV is the way to be. And thus I could undress you in public, and I could lure you into bed with diseases for which there is no cure. In other words, if I were the devil I'd just keep right on doing what he's doing...

Paul Harvey, good day!"
